The 1958 Bulldog

*Edited by the Seniors
of Batesville High School
Batesville, Indiana*

Dedication

Peace! Something that everyone is looking for and something that only a choice few will find. These choice few will be those who have learned that the most important thing in life is not money or social position but that it is the basic fundamentals of life itself. These people will have learned that God, Love, Tolerance and Honesty is the only road to peace--peace within oneself as well as with one's fellow man. With this thought in mind, we, the Bulldog staff, dedicate this book to Peace.

ADMINISTRATION

Autographs

Ann, Our Secretary

We at the high school do not get to see Ann Roth so much now since she has moved almost completely to her new office in the Westwood School, but we will never forget her and her sparkling personality. She is shown here answering the phone in the new school building.

The School Board

These are the people who are doing their determined best to see that we get only the finest facilities for learning. May we introduce them to you? FROM LEFT TO RIGHT THEY ARE: Mr. Orlando Schorr, President of the Board; Dr. M.J. Pheiffer, Secretary; Mrs. Anne Saunders, Treasurer; and Mr. Charles Swain, Superintendent.

Miss Judi Stacey . . .

. . . Our candidate for Pumpkin Queen

Each year . . . the Senior class chooses a girl from their midst to represent Batesville High School at the annual Versailles Pumpkin Show, in the contest for Pumpkin Queen. The basis of this choice rests on beauty, personality, and poise.

Deversified Co-Operative Education

The basic objective of Diversified Cooperative Education is to prepare high school youth for useful employment in occupations of their choice. Training is made possible by cooperation between local schools and local business and industrial establishments. Students acquire practical work experience in their chosen occupation by working each afternoon; each morning the school provides individual instruction in the technical aspects of each student's job in specially scheduled classes conducted by a teacher coordinator.

Cadet Teaching

CADET TEACHING PROGRAM

Cadet Teaching, also called Exploratory Teaching, is a high school senior elective course that carries full credit toward graduation.

This course is designed for high school students who show some interest in the teaching profession. Secondly, the program was initiated to encourage and guide young people into the teaching profession.

The C.T. course is supervised by the Superintendent of City Schools, the Elementary and Secondary Principals, participating teachers, and a coordinator.

Each cadet teacher is assigned to a teacher. The cadet meets with this teacher's class one full class period each school day, giving individual attention and help to the superior and remedial students, planning with the teacher special programs, and observing the teacher at work.

History of the Class of '58

In 1954 we started together as Freshmen here at Batesville High School. At this time we entered a strange new world—one full of excitement and wonderment. We were all a little frightened at first because we didn't know what this new life held in store for us.

Thank heaven for our class sponsors, Miss Wanning and Mr. McConnell, who explained to us the procedure of class operations. We started our career at B.H.S. by electing our first class officers. They were Roger Hunt, President; Larry Tonges, Vice President; Tania Decker, Secretary; and Martha Thie, Treasurer. Our Student Council representatives were Roberta Ake, Kay Boehmer, Buck Drockelman, Jim Kruse, Ron Abphanalp.

The highlight of the school year was Freshman Initiation, an experience that no one easily forgets.

The next year when we assembled as Sophomores we were sorry to notice that Geraldine Davidson, Helen Wernke, Carol Yorn, Joyce Peters, Gilbert Obermeyer, Ken Fields, Sandra Peters, Doreen Moody, and Clifford Barnhorst were no longer with us. However, most of the vacancies were filled with the coming of Joe Cook, Gerald Cronin, Artie Colvin, Dick Hurley, Ron Bessler, Jerry Scheele, and Judi Stacey.

For our Sophomore year we elected Buck Drockelman, President; Dick Fehlinger, Vice President; Larry Tonges, Secretary and Treasurer. For Student Council representatives we chose Mary Lou Sarringhaus, Violet Bergman, Roger Hunt, Kay Boehmer, Walter Erxleben. In this second year of high school we were under the able guidance of Mr. Roy Gardner and Miss Louise Jordan. This was also the first year that our class was eligible to have class representatives at the Homecoming festivities. They were Mary Lou Sarringhaus and Tania Decker.

At the end of our Sophomore year Gloria Lloyd, Darlene Kessens, Sam Jewell, Ray Collins, Jim Werner, Charles Hazelwood, Harold Effing, Artie Colvin, George McDaniel, Leo Ronnebaum, Connie Parmer, and Nancy Borgman were no longer with us.

In 1956 we ascended the third step of our high school career. We began the new school year with new class officers, a new co-sponsor, some new classmates, and anticipation of all the new things our Junior year would hold in store for us.

Our class officers were Larry Tonges, President; Tom Sicking, Vice-President; Kay Boehmer, Secretary; and Buck Drockelman, Treasurer. This year we elected Student Council members who would represent us for our Senior year too. They were Roger Hunt, Judi Stacey, Tania Decker, Jim Kruse, Walter Erxleben. Miss Marie Green replaced Miss Jordan as our co-sponsor and Peggy Bohannon, Donna Fell, David Freese, Eddie Lehman, Tom Sicking and Bill Oswald were our new classmates.

Our Junior Homecoming Queen attendants were Dolores Becker and Judi Stacey. This was the first of three major happenings of our Junior year. The second was the presentation of the Junior play, "Cupid In Pigtales," under the excellent direction of Mr. Anthony Federico and his wife Betty; the third was the Junior-Senior Prom, the theme of which was "Water Wonderland."

Now we find ourselves back again, this time at the top of the high school ladder as distinguished Seniors. Our officers are Walter Erxleben, President; Bill Oswald, Vice-President; Kay Boehmer, Secretary; and Roger Hunt, Treasurer. Our Sponsors are again Mr. Gardner and Miss Green.

This has been a year for beauty. The Senior class chose Judi Stacey to represent Batesville in the Versailles Pumpkin Show. Erma Hornig and Kay Boehmer were chosen to be Senior Homecoming Attendants and Martha Thie was chosen to be the Homecoming Queen. During the year two classmates, Eugene Niese and Eddie Lehman left us. Now, along with Greg Ilderton, who joined us near the beginning of the first semester, and Sue Woolf and John Wietlesbach who joined us too late for their pictures to appear with the rest of the class in the annual, we look back to our high school days and all their memories: our play, "Stranger In The Night," under the direction of Miss Josephine Lochard, the Junior-Senior Prom, Baccalaureate, Senior Day, and Graduation.
